Responsible Original Delivery Starting Brief

- Specify: Which evidence separates narrator and viewpoint from character aims in this case? Specify the intended user, purpose and boundary.
- Clear: How does turning points change the interpretation of cause and effect? Clear material, rights, safety and authority concerns.

- Edition success means: produce a response that does not imitate the source's wording or style

Discussion Guide

This format is designed to prepare open questions and balanced participation. For fiction reading, apply the method in a deliberate sequence: move from observation to interpretation and invite evidence for differing views. The edition target is write an original response, so each entry should show what was noticed, what was tried and what changed.

Working step	What to record	Evidence or source	Status
Specify Narrator And Viewpoint	Which evidence separates narrator and viewpoint from character aims in this case?	Use brief / date	Open / checked
Clear Character Aims	How does turning points change the interpretation of cause and effect?	Clearance / date	Open / checked
Create Turning Points	What boundary on patterns and motifs must be checked before relying on ending response?	Original output / date	Open / checked
Challenge Cause And Effect	Which observation links character aims to patterns and motifs, and what remains uncertain?	Independent review / date	Open / checked
Correct Patterns And Motifs	What alternative explanation could account for both cause and effect and narrator and viewpoint?	Correction record / date	Open / checked
Release Ending Response	What next check on ending response would make the record about turning points more useful?	Release record / date	Open / checked

Completion Standard

- Keep the work tied to fiction reading, not to a vague general intention.
- Apply this adjustment: paraphrase, cite minimal necessary evidence and develop a distinct idea
- Is the output original, traceable and suitable for its stated use?
- Expose this outcome risk if it appears: the work imitates a source.
- Use original notes and explanations; quote only when necessary, lawful and properly attributed.
- Ask a reader, educator, librarian, editor or rights adviser to challenge one material assumption where appropriate.
- Close with one decision and one follow-up rather than an unranked list of ideas.

Preserve any gap that prevents a supported conclusion.

#	Action	Constraint	Record
1	Frame / Specify cause and effect	Which evidence separates narrator and viewpoint from character aims in this case? Specify the intended user, purpose and boundary.	Readiness / Use brief
2	Prompt / Clear patterns and motifs	How does turning points change the interpretation of cause and effect? Clear material, rights, safety and authority concerns.	Brief / Clearance
3	Observe / Create ending response	What boundary on patterns and motifs must be checked before relying on ending response? Create the work independently from traceable evidence.	Observation / Original output
4	Listen / Challenge narrator and viewpoint	Which observation links character aims to patterns and motifs, and what remains uncertain? Challenge accuracy, accessibility and unintended risk.	Response / Independent review
5	Summarise / Correct character aims	What alternative explanation could account for both cause and effect and narrator and viewpoint? Correct the evidenced gaps without copying a reference work.	Access check / Correction record
6	Close / Release turning points	What next check on ending response would make the record about turning points more useful? Release only with ownership, version and review details.	Close / Release record

Common Failure Modes

- For cause and effect, watch for a participant misunderstands the task together with the intended use is vague.
- For patterns and motifs, watch for the first observation is incomplete together with a right or safety concern is ignored.

- For narrator and viewpoint, watch for comfort or access changes together with review is not independent.
- For character aims, watch for feedback conflicts together with a correction creates new copying.

Independent Review Question

Format question: What changed between the first observation and the considered response? Outcome question: Is the output original, traceable and suitable for its stated use? Ask a reader, educator, librarian, editor or rights adviser where appropriate, then answer before the next reading session: _____
