Completion Standard

- Keep the work tied to fiction reading, not to a vague general intention.

- Expose this outcome risk if it appears: the work imitates a source.
- Use original notes and explanations; quote only when necessary, lawful and properly attributed.
- Ask a reader, educator, librarian, editor or rights adviser to challenge one material assumption where appropriate.

Preserve any gap that prevents a supported conclusion.

#	Action	Constraint	Record
1	Align / Specify cause and effect	Which evidence separates ending response from narrator and viewpoint in this case? Specify the intended user, purpose and boundary.	Cases / Use brief
2	Compare / Clear patterns and motifs	How does character aims change the interpretation of turning points? Clear material, rights, safety and authority concerns.	Alignment / Clearance
3	Detect / Create ending response	What boundary on cause and effect must be checked before relying on patterns and motifs? Create the work independently from traceable evidence.	Difference / Original output
4	Explain / Challenge narrator and viewpoint	Which observation links narrator and viewpoint to cause and effect, and what remains uncertain? Challenge accuracy, accessibility and unintended risk.	Explanation / Independent review
5	Judge / Correct character aims	What alternative explanation could account for both turning points and ending response? Correct the evidenced gaps without copying a reference work.	Judgement / Correction record
6	Document / Release turning points	What next check on patterns and motifs would make the record about character aims more useful? Release only with ownership, version and review details.	Decision / Release record

- For narrator and viewpoint, watch for the explanation lacks evidence together with review is not independent.
- For character aims, watch for fitness criteria change together with a correction creates new copying.
