Responsible Original Delivery Starting Brief

- Specify: Which evidence separates line and stanza from rhythm and sound in this case? Specify the intended user, purpose and boundary.
- Clear: How does image change the interpretation of figurative language? Clear material, rights, safety and authority concerns.
- Create: What boundary on shift or turn must be checked before relying on speaker? Create the work independently from traceable evidence.
- Challenge: Which observation links rhythm and sound to shift or turn, and what remains uncertain? Challenge accuracy, accessibility and unintended risk.
- Correct: What alternative explanation could account for both figurative language and line and stanza? Correct the evidenced gaps without copying a reference work.
- Edition success means: produce a response that does not imitate the source's wording or style

For poetry reading, apply the method in a deliberate sequence: borrow no expression; extract a craft principle, draft independently and revise. The edition target is write an original response, so each entry should show what was noticed, what was tried and what changed.

Clear Rhythm And Sound	How does image change the interpretation of figurative language?	Clearance / date	Open / checked
Create Image	What boundary on shift or turn must be checked before relying on speaker?	Original output / date	Open / checked
Challenge Figurative Language	Which observation links rhythm and sound to shift or turn, and what remains uncertain?	Independent review / date	Open / checked
Correct Shift Or Turn	What alternative explanation could account for both figurative language and line and stanza?	Correction record / date	Open / checked
Release Speaker	What next check on speaker would make the record about image more useful?	Release record / date	Open / checked

Completion Standard

- Keep the work tied to poetry reading, not to a vague general intention.
- Apply this adjustment: paraphrase, cite minimal necessary evidence and develop a distinct idea
- Is the output original, traceable and suitable for its stated use?
- Expose this outcome risk if it appears: review is not independent.
- Use original notes and explanations; quote only when necessary, lawful and properly attributed.
- Ask a reader, educator, librarian, editor or rights adviser to challenge one material assumption where appropriate.
- Close with one decision and one follow-up rather than an unranked list of ideas.

Preserve any gap that prevents a supported conclusion.

#	Action	Constraint	Record
1	Intend / Specify image	Which evidence separates line and stanza from rhythm and sound in this case? Specify the intended user, purpose and boundary.	Intention / Use brief
2	Record / Clear figurative language	How does image change the interpretation of figurative language? Clear material, rights, safety and authority concerns.	Record / Clearance
3	Notice / Create shift or turn	What boundary on shift or turn must be checked before relying on speaker? Create the work independently from traceable evidence.	Observation / Original output
4	Interpret / Challenge speaker	Which observation links rhythm and sound to shift or turn, and what remains uncertain? Challenge accuracy, accessibility and unintended risk.	Meaning / Independent review
5	Synthesize / Correct line and stanza	What alternative explanation could account for both figurative language and line and stanza? Correct the evidenced gaps without copying a reference work.	Learning / Correction record
6	Commit / Release rhythm and sound	What next check on speaker would make the record about image more useful? Release only with ownership, version and review details.	Commitment / Release record
